

Closed captions are very important for the hearing impaired. More attention should be given to proper names. Many times these are omitted. I do not watch programs that do not have captions. They make my understanding possible.